

Elizabeth Gonzalez

Chief, Local Government Compliance Bureau
Division of Audits
California State Controller's Office

Professional Experience

Ms. Gonzalez is the Chief of the Local Government Compliance Bureau within the State Controller's Office, Division of Audits. She joined the State Controller's Office over 30 years ago and has managed various programs within the Division of Audits. As Bureau Chief, Ms. Gonzalez oversees the work of six managers and 35 staff. The Bureau's responsibilities include: court revenue audits, the allocation and apportionment of property tax revenue, successor agency asset transfer reviews, unclaimed property examinations and audits of oil and gas leases.

Education

Ms. Gonzalez has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology as well as a minor in Business Administration from California State University, Sacramento.