

Matthew Siverling

Independent Contract Lobbyist
State Association of County Auditors

Matt Siverling has been an independent contract lobbyist since 2003; representing the State Association of County Auditors; the County Agricultural Commissioners & Sealers Association, the California Association of Clerks & Election Officials, and San Benito County.

Prior to his transition into independent contract lobbying, Mr. Siverling served as a policy advisor to a constitutional officer in the State Legislature, specializing in K-12, higher education and student issues. He served as the primary liaison to the University of California Board of Regents and the California State University Board of Trustees on statewide issues related to tuition, admissions and curriculum.

Mr. Siverling holds a BA in Political Science from the University of California, Davis and completed a program on leadership from the University of Prague, School of Economics.