Inviting Applicants for New Nanotechnology Task Force Co-Chairs Honda, Westly Seeking Members

- What: US Rep. Mike Honda (D-San Jose) and California State Controller Steve Westly (D), co-chairs of the Blue Ribbon Task Force on Nanotechnology, are seeking nominations for individuals interested in serving on the Task Force. Successful candidates will help the Task Force secure the benefits of nanotechnology for the Bay Area and Silicon Valley and promote California as the national and worldwide center for nanotechnology research, development, and commercialization.
- Deadline: Candidates must submit an application form by August 6, 2004. In addition to the application form, candidates must submit a written response detailing how the candidate complies with the criteria requirements as described in the application packets. Interested candidates can download application packets at <http://www.house.gov/honda/InCongress/blueribbonnanotech.html> or by calling the offices of Rep. Honda at 408-558-8085 or State Controller Westly at 916-445-2636.
- Who: The Task Force selection committee is seeking individuals representing stakeholder groups in California's nanotechnology arena who have the time, expertise, and commitment to help develop a regional nanotechnology economic development initiative and supporting legislation. Task Force will include members from, among others, the fields of research (university, national labs, industry); education; technology transfer/commercialization; ethics; and government.

To Apply: Applications should be sent by the August 6 deadline to the following: Michael Wang; Office of Congressman Mike Honda; 1999 South Bascom Avenue; Suite 815; Campbell, CA 95008.
