Statement on the Death of Rosa Parks

SACRAMENTO – Steve Westly today issued the following statement on the death of civil rights pioneer Rosa Parks:

“While Rosa Parks' passing brings sadness to all of us who believe in equality for every American, we should remember that the injustice she stood up against so long ago is still a reality for too many in our nation today.

“We owe Rosa Parks a debt – one that will only be repaid when all of us put our differences aside and come together as equals.”
