PERSONNEL LETTER #18-013

TO: All Agencies/Campuses in the Uniform State Payroll System

FROM: Marissa Revelino, Chief
Personnel and Payroll Services Division

RE: DISCONTINUATION OF FAIR SHARE AND ALTERNATIVE FAIR SHARE DEDUCTIONS AND ISSUANCE OF JUNE 2018 FAIR SHARE REFUNDS

The Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) ruling on Janus v. American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, Council 31 has effectively eliminated the collection of an "agency fee," better known as fair share or alternative fair share. The State Controller's Office (SCO) withheld the final fair share and alternative fair share deductions from the June 2018 payroll warrants.

On June 28, 2018, SCO cancelled all payroll fair share and alternative fair share deductions. Neither human resources personnel, nor employees need to take any further action or submit any formal requests to cancel these deductions for future payroll cycles.

Fair share or alternative fair share should be excluded from any pay processed after June 30, 2018, including pay for retroactive pay periods.

Per the request of the following unions, SCO will be processing refunds for the June 2018 fair share fees no later than August 17, 2018. Departments and campuses should distribute all refund warrants or direct deposit advices as usual.
