

Unclaimed Property Reporting Resources

All businesses are required to report unclaimed property each year. Visit GoReport.sco.ca.gov for free reporting resources.

What Is Unclaimed Property? Examples Include:

- Wages and commissions
- Securities
- Customer refunds
- Rebates
- Savings and checking accounts
- Overpayments
- Insurance proceeds
- And more!

Most property becomes unclaimed after 3 years without activity or contact from the owner.

Free Training Webinars

Online Report Submission

Reporting Information

One-on-One Staff Support

Speak to a staff member M-F, 8AM-5PM at (916) 464-6088.

Email Support

upholderoutreach@sco.ca.gov

Have Past-Due Unclaimed Property?

Apply to the Voluntary Compliance Program to potentially qualify for a waived interest assessment.

Application

Claim Your Unclaimed Property

California is holding $13 billion in unclaimed property.
Search the database to find funds in your name.

What Is Unclaimed Property? Examples Include:

- Wages and commissions
- Securities
- Customer refunds
- Rebates
- Savings and checking accounts
- Overpayments
- Insurance proceeds
- And more!

Most property becomes unclaimed after 3 years without activity or contact from the owner.

How to Find Unclaimed Property:

- Visit ClaimIt.ca.gov
- Search by name or address
- Select “Add to Cart”
- Follow on-screen prompts to claim your funds or items

Claimit.ca.gov

Need Help with a Claim? We Are Here for You!

- Visit Claimit.ca.gov for more informational resources.
- Contact us via email.
- Call (800) 992-4647 Monday-Friday, 8am-5pm.

Email Support

Who Safeguards Unclaimed Property?

The California State Controller’s Office safeguards unclaimed property until it is reunited with rightful owners. It remains in the database until it is reunited—it does not expire.